Jewelry trunk show features "The Magnificent Seven"
Benefit for Fund for Women & Girls held at The Undertown Cafe

You and your old jewelry (read on!) are invited to "The Magnificent Seven" Jewelry Trunk Show on Feb. 4 from 1-7 p.m. at The Undertown Cafe in Port Townsend.

Seven regional jewelers will be selling their unique wares and donating a portion of their sales to the Fund for Women & Girls of Jefferson County.

This is a chance to see and buy beautiful jewelry, pick out Valentine's Day gifts, and raise money for the newly created Fund.

In addition, participating jeweler Micki Lippe is inviting attendees to bring their old, tired and mismatched jewelry to the event. She takes second-hand jewelry and cleans and reworks it into beautiful pieces that she donates to women's shelters throughout western Washington, including the one in Port Townsend. Lippe's nonprofit is called the Women's Shelter Jewelry Project and tax-deductible receipts are available for donated jewelry.

"The Magnificent Seven" jewelers are Jennifer Lawrence Bennet of Seattle (organic & sculptural work), Mary Edwards of Poulsbo (beaded and pearls), Victor Judd of Port Townsend (bone carvings), Micki Lippe of Seattle (silver metal work) Mary Lynn Maloney of Port Townsend (coin and stamp jewelry), Marlene Newman of Port Townsend (special stones and silver), Sharon Saindon of Port Townsend (silver work)

Bring your friends, family and jewelry to participate in this fun and worthwhile event. For more information about the show or the Jefferson County Community Foundation's Fund for Women & Girls, visit www.jccfgives.org or email kris@jccfgives.org.
